

celtic institute of the midwest

at scattergood friends school 1951 delta avenue · west branch, ia 52358

presents

the feast of BRIGIT wednesday, january 29, 2014 7- 8:30 pm

In ancient Ireland the first day of February was known as Imbolc, a festival celebrating the first stirrings of spring and the return of light and life to the earth after the cold, dark days of winter. It also marks the feast of St. Brigit, who like St. Patrick is honored as a patron of the Irish people.

Join Dr. Benjamin Bruch at Scattergood Friends School on January 29 for an evening of food, fellowship, story, song, seasonal crafts, and Celtic traditions. All ages welcome!

Admission $10 · Students (with ID) $5 · Ages 12 and under free · Refreshments will be provided

Visit www.celtic-institute.org to learn more about our Spring 2014 reading groups on Welsh Mythology and Women in the Celtic World and to download a registration form.

Follow our blog at celticinstitute.wordpress.com for information about upcoming events at Celtic Institute of the Midwest as well as news and stories from around the Celtic world!

ABOUT THE INSTRUCTOR

Dr. Benjamin Bruch has taught Celtic languages, literatures, folklore, mythology, and music to students of all ages at schools, colleges, and cultural events in the United States, Great Britain, Germany, and Austria. He was made a bard of the Cornish Gorsedd in 1998 and received his Ph.D. in Celtic Languages and Literatures from Harvard University in 2005.

Scattergood
FRIENDS SCHOOL

Many of our courses are held on the campus of Scattergood Friends School. For directions or to learn more about Scattergood, please visit scattergood.org.

Facebook: celticmidwest · Twitter: @celticmidwest · E-mail: info@celtic-institute.org · Phone: 443-610-6677