The Fine Print: The Celtic Institute of North America reserves the right to cancel or reschedule any course at any time. Course fees and materials fees do not include the cost of meals or lodging, except as otherwise indicated in the course description. You may cancel your enrollment in a course 15 days or more before the scheduled start date of that course and receive a full refund of both the course and materials fees, less a $35 processing fee. If you cancel your enrollment in a course between 2 and 14 days before the scheduled start date of that course, you will receive a credit in the amount of the course fee only, less a $35 processing fee. This credit is valid for one year from its date of issue, and can be applied toward enrollment in any of our courses during that period. We regret we cannot offer refunds or credits to students who cancel their enrollment on or after the day preceding the scheduled start date of a course. A $50 processing fee will be assessed on all returned checks.*
